Autonomic Software Wins Network Products Guide Reader Trust Award for Best Enterprise Desktop Management & Security Solution

ANSA Platinum Selected a 2010 Best Products and Services Winner

Danville, CA – June 28, 2010 – Autonomic Software, Inc., a provider of the most advanced enterprise IT power management solutions on the market, announced today that Network Products Guide, industry’s leading information technology research and advisory guide has named ANSA Platinum a winner of the 2010 Best Products and Services Award. This respected annual award honors products and services that represent the rapidly changing needs and interests of the end-users of technology worldwide. As part of the tech-industry’s leading global awards program, this year’s Best Products and Services were nominated from all over the world. Among the winners of the Best Products and Services awards in 2010 are Cisco Systems, VeriSign, Jabra, NetScout and others.

ANSA Platinum delivers a comprehensive network management and security solution, managing and securing network servers and desktops with speed, visibility and comprehensive selective reporting. ANSA Platinum is the only product in the world to provide Power Management, Asset Management, Configuration Management, Enterprise Reporting, Software Distribution, Patch Management and PCI and Governance Compliance in one small, affordable, intelligent-agent-based software suite.

“Increased end-user awareness and ongoing advances in technology are helping shape better products and services.” says Rake Narang, editor-in-chief, Network Products Guide. “ANSA’s core agility will allow the suite to maintain its technological leadership for the foreseeable future”

“These awards go to the best technology products every year and we are honored that Autonomic’s ANSA Platinum has gained the Network Products Guide Reader Trust,” said Tony Gigliotti, Autonomic Software's CEO. "We are committed to meeting our customer needs by providing them with the best products and services.
